

God's Boomerang

One of the most upside-down things in God's way shows up as you pursue your Life Mission. A key focus in developing your Life Mission is figuring out who you want to help. Of course, we are called to help others.... but God turns it around on us. His purpose in having us pursue our Life Mission is for us to be the ones whose lives are changed.... according to our Life Mission. Like a boomerang, it circles back to us.

For example: My Life Mission is "Unlocking Lives, Guiding Futures". As I pursue this for others, God requires me to experience it first. With God at the helm, my own life must actually be unlocked and my new future forming. You see, I cannot help others unless I am one step ahead of them. How can I relate to another if I have not been where they are and experienced what they are seeking? This is when I am contagious. This is how God calls on us to lead. We must be further down the road than those we are leading.

The Apostle Paul is a great example. His Life Mission: Bringing the Good News to the Gentiles. Throughout his life, he continued to go deeper, believing the Good News to a greater and greater degree as he was tested. The fruit of his ministry speaks for itself.

Do you know your Life Mission yet? How are you experiencing it in your own life? This is your path to freedom and fulfillment. Do you want this?

Your life is too precious to delay this step. I'm here to help you. Your life will not be the same. I guarantee it.

"I can help others because I have already been helped."

"He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us."

The Apostle Paul in 2 Corinthians 1:4 (NLT)
