

“I saw the angel in the marble and carved until I set him free.”

And so it is with us. God made us uniquely for a specific role, yet it's buried beneath layers and layers of unneeded, unwanted stuff. Like Michelangelo suggested, this is not a matter of becoming, but uncovering. Step 2 in the Mission Curve™ process is titled “Uncovering Your Character Identity” for this reason. Your Character Identity is the primary role you are to play in God's story - the adventure of your life. The process leads you to work intimately with God as you identify the two Characters that, when combined, capture your distinct role. Contrast the Character Identities “Artist/Teacher” and “Artist/Promoter” for example. Both artists, creative, but different... Can you imagine the differing roles these people might play? Your Character Identity is Simple. Concise. Clear. Practical. Unforgettable. Not some huge paragraph listing qualities or strengths as so many self-assessment tools provide. What good are these in a drawer? God works with simple, clear terms. There is beauty in simplicity. Your Character

Identity is the distinguishing peak of the mountain called your identity. The base is everything all of us have in common - the embodiment of the fruits of the Spirit that all the children of God (pure, blameless, forgiven, loved...) are given. You might say the base is, our "family identity". Your Character Identity is what sets you apart from your siblings, each of us representing a different facet of God, wired to serve a different part of his body. Powerful.

"I have a special role, I'm needed, right where I am"

"But our bodies have many parts, and God has put each part just where he wants it. <sup>19</sup> How strange a body would be if it had only one part! <sup>20</sup> Yes, there are many parts, but only one body. <sup>21</sup> The eye can never say to the hand, "I don't need you." The head can't say to the feet, "I don't need you." 1 Corinthians 12:18-21 (NLT)
