

Ditch Your Tweener Thinking

“...you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows”

Jesus Christ| Matthew 10:30 (NLT)

You'll likely find yourself in a predicament when you start to grasp your newly revealed Life Mission. At first, excitement prevails. After years of trial and error, you finally have a direction; almost too good to be true! On the other, you think “maybe this is a pipe dream, just words on paper”. If you're not careful you could become a “Tweener” – half in/half out. Tweener thinking is fueled by a sense that your Life Mission is not significant...where do you think this thought comes from?

“Give as freely as you have received!” Jesus Christ| Matthew 10:8 (NLT)

I get a kick out of the way Jesus put things sometimes. After calling his disciples together and giving them a tall order (go out and announce the kingdom of heaven is here, heal the sick, etc.), and painting a picture of what dreadful things will happen to them, he tells them that they are more valuable than a whole flock of sparrows. Really? I wonder what the disciples said when they talked amongst themselves later. These words came from the one who knew he would soon give his life for these men, and all of us too. Of course we are more valuable than a few common birds; you are significant! This dialog is not about that. The disciples had already received, now it was time to give... It's about what you do after being saved.

"...But not a single sparrow can fall to the ground without your Father knowing it." Jesus Christ| Matthew 10:29 (NLT)

God will notice your Life Mission work...and so will his enemy.

If God notices even the most insignificant things that happen (sparrows falling to the ground), how much more will he pay attention to what you do? All we do matters to him, but nothing more than what we do to advance his agenda to redeem all that were lost. Jesus sent these men out to do incredible kingdom work, his top priority, and that smacked right in the enemy's face. He hates this and fights back.

"Look, I am sending you out as sheep among wolves. So be as shrewd as snakes and harmless as doves. <sup>17</sup> But beware! For you will be handed over to the courts and will be flogged with whips in the synagogues. <sup>18</sup> You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell the rulers and other unbelievers about me." Jesus Christ| Matthew 10:16-18 (NLT)

The enemy's first tactic will be to attempt to freeze you in your tracks by getting you to think that your Life Mission is insignificant. Have the thought that your Life Mission is too big for you to tackle? Or that you have no idea how to do it? Or what might happen if you do, becoming paralyzed by imagining the worst? The enemy wants you to be a Tweener because when you're half in/half out you're rendered fruitless.

"Beware!" Jesus shouted. Expect to be challenged, but the fight opens your opportunity. In the battle your testimony becomes contagious. You'll be surprised how. Tweeners don't go to battle – no battle, no fruit. When you ditch your Tweener thinking, everything changes.
