

Be it More. Do it More.

“For we are God’s masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.”

The Apostle Paul | Ephesians 2:10 (NLT)

Find Your Sweet Spot

I’ve never played much tennis. Calling me a hack would be generous. My usual shot has the ball careening off the frame or sometimes even the handle, the rattle running the length of my arm. But, every once in a while, “bam!” A powerful shot when the ball hits smack in the middle of the strings, the sweet spot. So easy and no rattled arm! If I could only do this consistently. A little guidance and some daily practice would make all the difference.

My observation is that when it comes to living out the “Adventure God Made You For,” most people are hitting off of the frame and some the handle. For them, life is hard, lacking power, and easily rattled. Such a life is headed for regret. You only get one life, why not align it with your sweet spot?

There are two keys to aligning your life with your sweet spot:

- ① Being Your Character Identity more.
- ② Doing Your Life Mission more.

The problem is, most people have a vague idea at best as to who God made them to be (Character Identity) and what he has them here to do (Life Mission). How can you flourish in your sweet spot if you don’t even know where it is... with crystal clarity?

Character Identity: A combination of two generically defined roles that capture the essence of a person’s core God-given gifting, strengths, and natural abilities.

Life Mission: The God given mission you are to complete while here on Earth in support of his kingdom agenda. A concise phrase (seven words or less) that describes what you go out to do all day, every day.

Crystal Clarity

Both your Character Identity and Life Mission are intentionally hyper concise (long paragraphs are quickly forgotten.) Underneath these few words resides an understanding so rich, that when you say them, a deep meaning as only you can know flushes to the surface...the outcome of a strong and challenging, advisor guided process of uncovering and aligning.

Once known, you are ready to move your life toward greater flourishing. Simply apply your Character Identity in the direction of your Life Mission anew each day. As Paul states, you are a masterpiece, specifically designed to the good work he planned for you. You just need to be the masterpiece more and do the good work more.

Be it More. Do it More.

Engage in a daily process of applying your Character Identity to your Life Mission: Focus, eliminate distractions, refocus, and do it again the next day. You might call this your “Missional Feedback Loop”, the process of aligning your life with the mission God has you here to complete. God calls you to focus on the present, to be present, with top priority on his kingdom agenda for you. This means daily.

“Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need.” Jesus Christ | Matthew 6:33 (NLT)

Consistently putting your kingdom responsibility first, day after day, will take you to your sweet spot. You will flourish. Your life will feel natural, powerful, sweet... with no rattle. A life without regret.

Coach's Question: How long will you suffer an unfulfilled life, a life headed for one of regret?

It's not too late to get your life aligned with your Character Identity and Life Mission. Once known, it's only a matter of....

...Being it More. Doing it More.

Post this where you will see it regularly.

Each day I align more and more with what the Lord has me here to do.

"Soldiers don't get tied up in the affairs of civilian life, for then they cannot please the officer who enlisted them."
