

Breaking Through the Wall

"These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold."

The Apostle Peter | 1 Peter 1:7 (NLT)

After working diligently to advance your Mission, you'll begin to feel good about what God's asked you to do. It's such a good work after all! Then, seemingly out of nowhere – bam! You’ve run head first into a brick wall.

Nothing seems to be working. Challenges abound. It’s as if God has removed his favor from you. “Is it something I’m doing wrong? Do I have what it takes? God, aren’t you supposed to help me? Is this really what you want me doing?” The questions roll in as doubt takes root... you wonder if all your efforts have been just a big waste of time.

You’ve hit “The Wall.”

Reflect: Have I encountered The Wall yet?

Anticipate it. Your Adventure with God would not be much of an adventure if you didn’t come against The Wall, a point of testing, multiple times along the way. If everything came easily, would you appreciate it? What kind of faith would that require? How pure would it be?

God so values faith that he’ll make sure yours is tested; he wants the “good stuff” ... purified like gold, seven times over. Stepping out to advance your Mission requires a change in belief, exchanging a worldly lie for a kingdom truth. But, here’s the thing, new beliefs must be tested genuine. How else would he do this? It’s impossible to please God without faith, remember?

Consider: The fires of my adventure produce fruit unattainable any other way.

Advancing your Mission is not simply a worldly exercise to help others. It’s your life’s adventure with the Lord; his great work in you and through you. It’s his way to build and purify your faith, heal your wound, make you contagious and create deep Intimacy with him. Your struggle will tempt you, but how could you turn from this?

“Trust in the Lord and do good. Then you will live safely in the land and prosper. Take delight in the Lord, and he will give you your heart’s desires. Commit everything you do to the Lord. Trust him, and he will help you. He will make your innocence radiate like the dawn, and the justice of your cause will shine like the noonday sun. Be still in the presence of the Lord, and wait patiently for him to act.” King David (Psalm 37:3-7)

Instead, follow the advice of King David, a veteran adventurer, as he tells us how to persevere. It’s well worth it! He lays out five steps to break through The Wall. These are worthy of posting on your wall, all around, you’ll need them.

Trust • Do my Mission • Delight • Commit • Patiently Wait

Imagine: Delighting as I break through The Wall.

While all five steps are vital, “Delight” stands out as extraordinary. It’s hard to fathom a giant grin forming amidst painful testing. Impossible? Try it. When you hit The Wall, spend a day “Delighting in the Lord.” (Don’t confuse this with delighting in his creation.) Envision yourself at his side noticing his work. Ask him to show you the fruit being produced. Allow him to fill you with the will to trust, fully commit, patiently persevere. The grin will form as you realize that the Lord over the entire universe wants your Mission to advance. Exhilarated, you’ll discover the key to...

Breaking Through The Wall!

Go off the grid and ask these questions:

Coach's Questions

- What kingdom belief is God testing me on as I come against The Wall?
- What eternal fruit is produced from the fiery testing? How will I stay focused on this?
- What steps will I take to delight in the Lord when I encounter The Wall?

Spirit Talk

Post this where you will see it regularly.

Trust • Stay on Mission • Delight • Commit • Patiently Wait

"So be truly glad. There is wonderful joy ahead, even though you must endure many trials for a little while. These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold. So when your faith remains strong through many trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day when Jesus Christ is revealed to the whole world.

The Apostle Peter | 1 Peter 1:6-7 (NLT)
